

We are looking for youth with disabilities
who want to CHANGE THE WORLD!

Who Are We?

- ◆ The Idaho State Independent Living Council (SILC) received a grant from the National Youth Leadership Network (NYLN) to organize youth with disabilities in Idaho.
- ◆ NYLN is a national not-for-profit organization made up of and run by young people with disabilities. For more information check out the NYLN's web site at www.nyln.org
- ◆ To promote the goals of the National Youth Leadership Network, the SILC is working with the Idaho Council on Developmental Disabilities (ICDD) and Access Concepts & Training, Inc.

Speak Out!

- ◆ Are you a young individual with a disability between the ages of 16 and 26?
- ◆ Do you want to have fun and create change?
- ◆ Do you want to work together with other youth to set and prioritize goals that are important to you?
- ◆ Do you want to have a voice in policy or issues that affect your life on a local, state, and national level?
- ◆ Do you want to become a leader?

If yes, apply by April 30th to participate on the Idaho Statewide Youth Network
Project

Please Contact Dana Gover at
Access Concepts & Training, Inc.
1106 S. Vermont
Boise, Idaho 83706

Email: gforitdhq@msn.com
Phone: (208) 761-3073

How Do I Apply?

E-mail or send a one page narrative that includes the following

- ◆ Name
- ◆ Address
- ◆ Phone number
- ◆ E-mail
- ◆ Age
- ◆ Disability
- ◆ Describe why you want to participate on a statewide youth network council
- ◆ Describe how your participation can make a difference in your life
- ◆ Include any experience that you have or want to gain in leadership skills.

Go to my blog: <http://idahoyouthleadershipnetwork.blogspot.com>